A Beautiful Place

In the Sonoran Desert, when you look around
You'll notice at moments it's silent, and others full of sound
A snake's tail rattling away, to either protect or catch its prey
And the wind whistles and sings as if to say,
This truly is a beautiful place
The sands swirl 'round in unparalleled grace
If you look to the skies, as dusk settles over
And as the day draws nearer to its closure
The ceiling of the world turns to magnificent colors
This life-changing experience is forever yours
