

Desert sunset

So many colors to see so beautiful so pretty as the moon goes down, I feel the breeze rustle in my hair And I hear the coyotes howling in the dark,
I smell the lake that is nearby,
I hear animals drinking from the lake,
I see silhouettes of animals running and hopping
I smell the crisp mountain air if you really look Everything is beautiful
Just open your heart
